FOREWORD

The pages of this edition of Memory's Trail were compiled with this one thought in mind:

No matter how rough or rocky the path of life may be, may you always be able to look back with pride and pleasure upon your trail of memories.

STUDENTS CREED

"I, of my own accord, place upon myself the solemn duty of observing honesty, loyalty, truthfulness, and good sportsmanship at all times, in relation to my teachers, schoolmates and friends. I will be honest in all my work, loyal to all that is good and true, courteous in my manner and sportsmanlike in my attitude.

Thereby, I pledge myself to do all in my power to protect and uphold, in every way possible, the good name and the high standards of Hilliards High School.

ALWOOD FLORIST

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1949, supposedly being superior in brawn, brain and beauty proclaim this to be our last will and testament.

To the Seventh grade we leave our poise and dignity.

To the Eighth grade we leave our good behavior in study halls.

To the Freshmen goes our all around sports ability.

To the Sophomores goes our love for our teachers.

To the Juniors we leave our seats in the balcony.

Anything of value found in Hilliards High School after the graduation of the class of '49" is presented with all respect to the faculty.

I, Joann Holland, leave to Joe Martin my love for blonde bangs.

I, JoAnn Krohn, leave my ability to get good grades to Kenny Massie.

I, Bob Barnett, will my rights to Rollerland to George Pettit.

I, Geno Moro, will my ability to get good grades to Oscar Buck.

I, Paul Armstrong, will my intelligent looks to Gerald Alspaugh.

I, Bob Wilder, will my chew of tobacco to Woodie Anderson.

I, Tom Lamb, will my friendly smile and that innocent look to Bill Edry.

I, Violet Salzgeber, will my Tri-Hi-Y Presidency to Clarice Scheiderer.

I, Phyllis Armstrong, will my position third period in the office to anyone who can't type.

We, Virginia Weldon and Susie White, will our class friendship to Mae Morrow and Flo Ann Tracy.

I, Don Sheeders, hereby bequeath my captainship of the Senior noon basketball team to that gallant Junior, Jim Canfield.

I, Dorothy Taylor, leave my temper to Miss Mitchell.

I, Nancy Growdon, will my pen, paint and brushes to the next Art Editor of the Wildcat.

I, Louigena Delewese, will my position as Photography Editor of the annual to any camera fiend.

I, Alva McFarland, will my ability to argue with teachers to Jack Winkler.

I, Marian Goodyear, will my long hair to Susie Anderson.

I, Margaret Gemeinhardt, will my ability to hurry up and down the halls to the seventh and eighth graders.

I, James Moe, am leaving Beulah but not because I want to.

We, Mary and Ivy, leave our booth at Walgreen's to anyone who can take the night life.

I, Julia Franchini, leave my friendly smile and cheery personality to JoAnn Price.

I, Helen Tillman, will my red hair and temper to Elizabeth French.

I, Bob Edwards, will my ability to get out of classes to my two ardent admirers Jeanne Vagnier and Emmalou Nunamaker.

I, Shirley Schatz, leave my basketball queenship to Patty Cosgray.

I, Pauline Spear, will my seat in Civics class to Frances Hart, who'll probably be using it next year.

I, Catherine Vaughn, will my ability to make the honor roll to Ed. Leppert.

I, Jerry McDowell, will my ability to drive a car to Howard Crispin.

I, Cordis Montgomery, will my front seat in the office to Larry Patrick and Russell Keagy.

I, Joan Rings, will all my "love" for Home Ec. to Betty Owen.

I, Norma Matthews, will my natural curly hair to Wilma Johnson.

I, Pid Walker, will my pitching ability to next year's pitchers.

I, Betty Parker, will my daily trip to the bank to anyone who wants it.
 I, Joe Voltz, leave my love for the farm to Bill Miller.
 I, Betty Bandy, will my naturally curly hair to Doris Bollen.
 I, Joan Love, will my love for Worthington High School to JoAnn Price.
 I, Ted Salsbury, will my cutting classes to Bob Stormont.
 I, Wanda Reed, will my long years of wearing bangs to Ginny Williams.
 I, Dolores Sherwood, will the second period in the office without Mr. Patterson to any of the girls who are lucky enough to get it.
 I, Nancy Ford, leave my Eastern Accent to Don Clippinger.
 I, Dick Windle, will my ability to play basketball to Tommy Schopp.
 I, Branch Vencill, will my Cadillac to Jack Winkler for parts.
 I, Walter Hoffman, leave my ability to play first base to Jim Lamb.
 I, Jim Rice, will my speed to Zack Flynn.
 I, Gene Byers, give up all rights to my chair in Civics class to the next dope.
 I, Pat Sheets, will my love of sports to Larry Lutz.
 I, Don Upperman, bequeath my Latin books I and II to any person willing to have them.
 I, Jackie Rhoades, leave my membership in Honor Society to my cousin Bill Rhoades.
 I, Joe Pumphrey, leave my black wavy hair to Mr. Hartsook.
 I, Lois Alder, will my place on the Annual Staff to anyone who can stand it.
 I, Theresa Alder, will my position as cafeteria cashier to anyone who likes to feel money.
 I, Peggy Brashear, will my lighted Baton to Grace Hoffman.
 I, Homer Busick, leave my extra big seat to Carl Hankinson.
 I, Betty Castorano, will my long black hair to Carol Walker.
 I, Casey Montague, leave my basketball ability to Jack Galbraith.
 I, Marjorie Eiterman, will my quietness to my cousins.
 I, Jean Hoffman, leave my athletic ability to Mrs. Partenheimer.
 I, Betty Whitsel, will my sun tan to Frances Hart who I hope likes the outdoors as well as I do.
 I, Frances Slone, will my love for the Navy to Connie Miller.
 I, Blanche Pennington, will my position as Mimeographing Editor on School Paper to anyone who can take it.
 We, Marianna Liggett and Jean Toy, will our favorite seats in Civics class to Shirley Bolender and Patty Cox.
 I, Louise Davis, will my job of playing the Star Spangled Banner at assemblies to Karen Myers.
 I, Carlene Hamilton, will my quiet disposition to Richard Hansen.
 We, Marjorie Pendleton and Norma Hackworth, leave our jobs at the Grade School to anyone who will take them.
 I, Carol Kemper, leave my height to Carolyn Pettit.
 I, John Landis, leave my love for Photography to Delores Baum.
 I, Carl Shambough, leave my love for Science to Buzz Christenson.
 I, Gladys Prince, will my ability in Shorthand to Ouida Robinson.
 I, Dick Wilcox, will my position on the All-County Football team to anyone who is lucky enough to win it.
 I, Joan Hoffman, will my piano playing to Patty Hart.
 I, Jean Early, will my love for home life to Camille Hoover.

CLASS PROPHECY — 1949

It's almost time for the Homecoming Basketball game to start between Hilliards and Worthington. The year is 1959. Just think! We've been out of school ten years. A lot of territory has certainly been covered.

Wayne Montague and Dick Windle are the referees for the game. Strange how Hilliards always seems to win when they referee the game.

Joan Krohn is principal of Hilliards, Louise Davis is the Home Economics advisor and Jim Rice is the Coach.

Jim's wife, the former Lois Alder, is sitting with Betty and Pid Walker in the balcony, ready for the big game.

Cordis Montgomery is here but Theresa just couldn't make it. Their three children keep them pretty busy.

Peggy Brashear is making a picture in Hollywood, so she couldn't come tonight. Don Upperman is directing the movie and Branch Vencill is her press agent.

Bob Barnett and Don Sheeders, those navy guys, are home on leave so they are at the game also. They joined the navy to see the world and find themselves a girl. They saw the world but what about the girls?

Nancy Growdon is at home studying tonight. She is a professor of Fine Arts at the Ohio State University. Carl Shambaugh is also teaching at the University.

Tom Lamb is the man to see if you need your car washed in a hurry at Lamb's Service Station in Rome. Violet Salzgaber is teaching the first grade at Rome. They even managed to get their jobs close together.

Margie Pendleton liked her job at the grade school so much that she is now employed as Mr. Moore's private secretary.

Homer Busick and Joe Pumphrey are partners in the "We'll Get You In The End" Funeral Home.

Carlene Hamilton is the one to see if you need a quick loan. She is the "YES WOMAN" at the Personal Finance Company.

Louigena Delewese is the owner of the Gloria Night Club. Virginia Weldon and Betty Bandy are the hat check girls while Alva McFarland is the head waiter. They couldn't come to the game tonight as they had to be on hand to take care of the after game crowd.

The former Frances Slone and her sailor husband, Bob Mayer, who is home on leave, are here cheering wildly for Hilliards.

Helen Tillman, Pauline Spear, Gladys Prince, and Marian Goodyear are working in the Marshall Field Department Store in New York. They are strictly career girls.

| 9. John Landis        | 19. Betty Parker      | 29. Dolores Sherwood  |
| 10. Dorothy Taylor    | 20. Susie White       |                       |

Dorothy Taylor is Editor-in-Chief of the Hilliards Times. Marjorie Eiterman writes the love-lorn column and Julia Franchini is the society editor. Dick Wilcox is covering tonight's game for the Times.

Wanda Reed is the one to see if you want your hair bleached. She is the owner of the Instant Beauty Salon. Betty Castorano is the manicurist. They worked so hard getting the girls ready to come to the game tonight, that they were too tired to come themselves.

Norma Hackworth and Marianna Liggett have taken up the occupation of farmers' wives. They seem to be very happy in their new careers.

Walter Hoffman is in Washington working very hard at his new job of Secretary of Agriculture. Blanche Pennington is also in Washington, taking Walter's dictation. Joe Voltz, James Moe and Gene Byers are inventing new types of farm machinery.

Bob Edwards is the criminal lawyer you've been hearing so much about. He's in the balcony now, with his magnifying glass, hunting clues for his next case. Joan Hoffman is his assistant and Susie White is his little blonde Secretary.

Jean Hoffman is owner of the Red Bird's Baseball team. Bob Wilder is the pitcher and Geno Moro has become a professional golfer.

Betty Whightsel is a cartoonist for Walt Disney and Shirley Schatz is designing costumes for MGM.

Jackie Rhoades and Pat Sheets, now Mr. and Mrs., are working on interior decorating. Jackie has the ideas and Pat does the work.

Norma Matthews is an intern at White Cross Hospital in Hilliards and Joan Love is her head nurse. Jean Early and Catherine Vaughn are the dieticians and Ted Salzbury is the head janitor.

John Landis and Jerry McDowell own their own garage and are quite expert in their field. If your car doesn't run too well, take it to them and they'll see to it that it doesn't run at all.

Delores Sherwood owns her own bookstore and Nancy Ford is conducting speech classes for those who don't have that "Bostonian Touch."

Paul Armstrong is the general practitioner in Hilliards and Phyllis is his office nurse.

Carol Kemper is a speedy typist for Lazarus and Ivy Spencer is selling ladies "ready to wear" on the third floor.

Mary Bellisari is now Mrs. Johnston and is living in a cute little three-room apartment while Joann Holland is teaching their children in grade school.

Joann Rings has also become a farmer's wife but Jean Toy and Margaret Gemeinhardt are still looking for their certain someone. In their spare time they have office jobs at the Farm Bureau. They also came to the game tonight to cheer for Hilliards. Oh, yes. We won the game.

1948 FOOTBALL CHAMPS

Hilliards' battling Wildcats, under the able leadership of Coaches Fahrenholz, and Swope, and Captains Wilcox and Lamb, finished their 1948 Football Campaign with their second straight Championship of the County League. Every member of the league was required to play six of the eleven league members. Hilliards defeated all six, but tied with Mifflin for the league Championship. However, in a non-league post season game, Hilliards defeated Mifflin easily, 19-0, to have a total season record of 7 wins and 1 loss.

BASKETBALL SEASON

Coach Tom Swope's first year as Basketball Coach at Hilliards proved to be a successful one. The varsity team had a regular season record of 14 wins and 4 losses. They ended third in the Franklin County League with 7 wins and 3 losses. The reserve had a season record of 15 wins and 3 losses, with a league record of 9 wins and 1 loss to tie with Grove City and Worthington for the Reserve Championship.

In the County Tournament Hilliards came back to win the Consolation Championship and a berth in the District Tournament. This was the first trophy Hilliards had won in Basketball since 1934.
